UNITED STATES OF AMERICA -vs- JOAQUINA P. REYES

PRESENT: HON. ALEX R. MUNSON, CHIEF JUDGE PRESIDING
MICHELLE C. MACARANAS, DEPUTY CLERK
FAYE CROZAT, COURT REPORTER
JAMIE BOWERS, ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY
DANILO AGUILAR, COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL
JOAQUINA PANGELINAN REYES, DEFENDANT

PROCEEDINGS: PRELIMINARY HEARING

Defendant Joaquina Pangelinan Reyes appeared with court-appointed counsel, Danilo Aguilar. Government was represented by Jamie Bowers, AUSA. Also present in the Courtroom was U.S. Probation Officer, Margarita Wonenberg.

Government apprised the Court that the parties stipulate that there is probable cause and wish to waive Preliminary Examination. Parties would like to proceed with regards to probable cause as charged on the Complaint.

Defendant was sworn and advised of the charges against her in the complaint and her constitutional rights. Defendant waived her right to preliminary examination up until April 28, 2005. Court determined that the defendant was fully competent to waive preliminary examination and accepted her waiver.

Court ordered that "no bail" be set at this time without prejudice and that the defendant be held in custody. Attorney Aguilar moved the Court to allow the defendant to have limited visitation opportunity with her two children and her mother. Court ordered that the defendant may meet her two children with the supervision of the U.S. Marshal for approximately ten minutes today. Defendant was remanded into the custody of the U. S. Marshal.
